

ABSTRACT

The study aims to find out the efforts made by President Rodrigo Duterte in tackling the problem of disintegration in Mindanao. Mindanao is an area populated by moro people who are muslim settlers. The disintergarsi movement was sparked by disillusionment due to discrimination by Spanish colonialism and continued by the Philippine independent government. President Duterte is the 16th president of the Philippines, Duterte is the first president to come from Mindanao. Through an approach to nation integration, regional integration and elite-mass integration, the study seeks to describe President Duterte's efforts to solve the problem of disintegration in Mindanao.
