Dear Authors,

We apologize for the inconvenience in the peer reviewer process that has not been optimal.

Currently, we have also investigated several problems in our system/website. There are some reviewers who haven't finished doing the review. There are some reviewers who haven't attached the review form to the system so that it can not be downloaded by the authors or no content appeared.

As the committee, we are committed to trace and supervise your paper as much as possible, so that it can comply with the standard review process at the international conference.

Considering some cases that we have described above, we decided to extend the revision period of your manuscript. The deadline for fullpaper submission is "November 9th, 2020".

We thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Dr. Tedy Agung Cahyadi
