Dear ***** ,

Reviewers' comments on your manuscript have now been received. Having considered these comments alongside your paper I have decided that, unfortunately, we will not be able to publish your paper in Cogent Economics and Finance on this occasion. If you feel that the manuscript could be significantly revised based on the reviewers' comments, you could consider resubmitting as a new manuscript in the future.

For your guidance, I append the reviewers' comments below.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to consider your work.

If you are considering reworking your article you might be interested in exploring our Scientific Editing service (https://www.landeditingservices.com/services/scientific-editing-services.htm?utm_source=broadcast&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=JQG22172). Reviewer #1: Needs some language improvement, and spell checks. Can you make the introduction is one flow? Right now it seems a collection of statements from various research articles.

Reviewer #2: 1. The quality of the article does not meet the standards of the Cogent Economics and Finance journal.
2. The abstract does not reflect the research conducted and the results. abstract also does not explain the urgency of research, novelty and research contributions.
3. The background of the problem has not explained the performance problems in SMEs, why do performance problems in Indonesian SMEs need to be studied? how urgent is it?
4. The basic theory used for developing the hypothesis is not explained.
5. Hypotheses are built from research results or from articles that are not of good quality
6. Conclusions, suggestions and recommendations for further research are not explained
7. References are very non-standard, do not use APA format and there are still referenced articles that do not use English
8. In conclusion: This article cannot be continued or rejected
