

ABSTRACT

Education is the basic foundation in life. Education show how the condition and how prosper the society. To solve the education problems, state takes the important role. Agreement with other country is one of path that can be takes by government to rebuild education. The Education Agreement between Indonesia and United State of America show many kind of form, one of those is Fulbright program. Peace Corps is program agreement between Indonesia and United State of America in education field. Peace Corps program apply with the sending of teach employer or volunteer from USA to teach in Indonesia. This program aim to empowering the education and prepare the youth for the future in Indonesia. English education is the one of the main program from Peace Corps Program.

This research is aim to explain how the Peace Corps Program held in Indonesia. This paper aim to show the effect and cause from Peace Corps Program. The Peace Corps program has retake on 2009. The Agreement between USA and Indonesia in education field has contributing to education system in Indonesia. In East and west Java province where the Peace Program taking action, the Peace Corps Program has make a positive causes for the society related to education and understanding between USA and Indonesian society.

Keywords. Agreement, Indonesia, United State of America, Education, Peace Corps Program