

Background of Tony Abbott winning at Australian Election 2013

Abstract

Australian election has set Tony Abbott as the winner. Election ran fluently, safely and very democratic, there is no violence or unrest. Party working machine supporting, the Liberal and National Party coalition, Tony Abbott showed compactness and good cooperation in 2013. The party working machine capable of delivering Tony Abbott as the new Prime Minister of Australia. Australian community expect change for the better, such as changes in the economy, the boat people and the provision of health services are good and decent. Through slogan 'A STRONG AUSTRALIA', we will see how Australia developing in first 3 year government lead by Tony Abbott

Keywords: Tony Abbott, Election, A Strong Australia, Coalition Liberal and National Party