

Yakuza is a structured criminal organization that very influential in Japan. To anticipate the existence of the Yakuza, the National Police Agency (NPA) developed Boryokudan Countermeasures Law. With the Act, the number of Yakuza in Japan plummeted and declining. With varying success, the pros and cons of the rule of law remain.