

Abstract

The erosion of a sense of nationalism Indonesian citizens become the driving factor songwriter creates song "Be a Legend". The song "Be a Legend" means the spirit of nationality / nationalism and unity aimed at young people to make them aware that a nation state was built from a pluralistic society, the community spirit really strong resolve to build a future together, regardless of differences in religion, race, skin color (bertatto), ethnic, or other primordial ties by promoting a sense of national unity. It is expected that the younger generation to continue the struggle to be the pioneer of the inspiration to make changes. The band SID spoke through the means of music. SID regarded as an expression of their dealers the most effective and they believe with their song can make changes for the better. SID music works around the issue of implementing them, it makes them strong idealistic. This study aims to determine the meaning contained in the lyrics of the song titled Superman Is Dead "Be a Legend" with regard to the meaning of national spirit and unity, and to know the message symbols are used in the lyrics of Be legend. In this study using the qualitative research. By using semiotic methods belong Saussure who see that meaning arises when there is an association or relationship between absentia 'marked' (signified) and 'the mark' (signifier). Preparation of research that does not use the qualitative method of data statistik. Hasil this study is the first meaning of the spirit of nationalism and unity. it is clearly evident and addressed to the younger generation to promote a sense of culturally diverse, continue the struggle pahlawandan SID yaitu the spirit of nationalism. And preserving grace of God given the wealth of nature and culture. All kinds of natural wealth and cultural diversity that Indonesia has made us proud of our homeland Indonesia in love and willing to sacrifice for Indonesia.